10th ADVANCES IN MACRO-FINANCE
TEPPER-LAEF CONFERENCE
CALL FOR PAPERS

PITTSBURGH, PENNSYLVANIA
SEPTEMBER 20-21, 2019

The Tepper School of Business at Carnegie Mellon University and the Laboratory for Aggregate Economics and Finance at the University of California Santa Barbara will hold the 10th Tepper-LAEF conference, designed to bring together leading scholars in the fields of finance and macroeconomics. This year, the conference will be held in Pittsburgh on Friday, September 20 and Saturday, September 21, 2019. The conference will consist of selected papers with a formal discussant for each paper.

Conference theme:

The focus of the conference is on research in finance and macroeconomics. We welcome both empirical and theoretical research on topics including, but not limited to: financial intermediation and regulation; networks and interventions; new technologies in financial services (i.e. FinTech); and the macroeconomic impact of financial frictions. Preference will be given to recent papers that have not previously been presented at major conferences.

Submission procedure:

Please submit an electronic version of the paper in PDF format no later than Sunday, June 23, 2019 to tepperlaef2019@gmail.com. Paper selections will be finalized by early July. Funding is available for presenters and discussants.

Tentative schedule:

Friday, September 20	Presentations: 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.	Dinner: 8:00 p.m.
Saturday, September 21	Presentations: 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Organizers: Tetiana Davydiuk, Selman Erol, Deeksha Gupta, and Finn Kydland
